Options Through Education \(OTE\): The mission of the Options Through Education Transitional Summer Program is to prepare the transition to Boston College for a select group of diverse students who have demonstrated potential and leadership in spite of challenging educational and financial circumstances. This summer residential program nurtures student's academic, social, cultural and spiritual development.

The Thea Bowman AHANA and Intercultural Center's mission is to support the undergraduate community, with a particular focus on AHANA (African American, Hispanic, Asian American and Native American), multiracial, and OTE students in navigating college life. We strive to promote a welcoming environment that fosters holistic development. Our vision is to promote equity, build community, and support opportunity. Admitted AHANA students will be invited to the Keith A. Francis AHANA Weekend in April, which is a three-day, two-night program designed to provide admitted AHANA scholars with the opportunity to explore academic and extracurricular life at Boston College. We aim to subsidize all travel expenses for those in need of assistance.

Boston College meets 100% of demonstrated need for every student while remaining need-blind in the admission evaluation and decision making process.

The Montserrat Office is an initiative under University Mission and Ministry. Rooted in the Ignatian and Catholic mission of Boston College, the Montserrat Office aims to assist students at the highest level of financial need to actively participate in and experience a Jesuit education. The program endeavors to mentor, guide, and support students on an individual level in the formation of academic, social, and spiritual aspects.

Cristo Rey Specific Schol- arship:	The Magis Award was established to recognize applicants from Jesuit and Cristo Rey high schools who have achieved a strong record of academic performance in a rigorous program of study. Students are selected on a competitive basis considering a comprehensive review of the high school academic record. SAT/ACT scores are not required for consideration, but will be reviewed if provided by the applicant. To be considered for a Magis Award, students must apply for admission to Loyola by January 15. A separate scholarship application is not required.
Student Engagement Op- portunities:	Loyola also hosts two ALANA (African, Latino, Asian, and Native American) Services Overnight Programs for accepted students in the spring, the Ignatius Scholars Program, and the Multicultural Awareness Program (MAP). The Ignatius Scholars Program provides opportunities to students who identify as first-generation college students, demonstrate significant financial need, or come from diverse backgrounds. The program is designed to give students a head start in their college career and a strong academic foundation that will enable them to excel. The MAP is a summer program designed to assist first-year students in acclimating to campus life at Loyola. Specific objectives of the program are academic enhancement, intercultural exploration, social adjustment and community service.
On-Campus Resources:	The ALANA Services Office organizes Academic and Career Enrichment workshops (ACE) throughout the year that provide students with knowledge and skills that complement their classroom learning, increase their engagement in university life, and empower them to advocate for themselves and others. Loyola also offers support through the Academic Advising & Support Center, peer tutoring, Academic Mentor Program, The Writing Center, The Counseling Center, the Office of Student Support and more.

We are a top-tier Catholic, Marianist research institution committed to student success and a diverse, inclusive environment. With our transparent tuition plan, we give families peace of mind - we have no tuition increases, no fees, and scholarships for textbooks and education abroad. We also offer merit scholarships worth up to $98,000 over four years and scholarships for leadership in service.

We are recognized nationally for the success of our students. We're ranked in the top 25 "Most Transformative Colleges" by Money for our high graduation rates and alumni success, and we're named a "Best Value College" by Kiplinger's and U.S. News and World Report. Our students have a 95% success rate within six months of graduation, and part of that is a result of our focus on experiential learning; we're ranked in the top 20 "Best Schools for Internships" by the Princeton Review. Another reason for our students' success is our commitment to community. We are a highly residential campus, with 85% of students living on campus or in our close-knit student neighborhood. Half of our students play intramural sports, and our students often enjoy being involved. For more than 160 years, the Marianists have enriched our community, creating a welcoming and inclusive campus where every person, no matter their faith or background, is treated with respect and openness.
