Enrollment

THIS PAGE INCLUDES:

>> Enrollment

On this page, enter the number of candidates for an initial teaching credential who are enrolled in the initial teacher preparation programs within your institution of higher education (IHE) or organization. Do not report on the total number of students enrolled in the entire IHE. Do not include individuals who currently hold a teaching credential and are seeking additional licenses or endorsements, or individuals preparing for school-based careers other than classroom teachers (e.g., administrators, guidance counselors).

The Department recognizes that in many cases, candidates voluntarily report their race/ethnicity and gender data, and that in some cases, candidates may choose not to report this information. Please report on the race/ethnicity data you have available, though the data may not be complete. It is not expected that the sum of the enrolled students reported by race/ethnicity or by gender will necessarily equal the total number of students enrolled.

If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the candidates enrolled in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, provide only the candidates enrolled in traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, provide only the candidates enrolled in the alternative programs within the IHE.

After entering the enrollment data, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Enrollment

For the purpose of Title II reporting, an enrolled student is defined as a student who has been admitted to a teacher preparation program, but who has not completed the program during the academic year being reported. An individual who completed the program during the academic year being reported is counted as a program completer and not an enrolled student.

Provide the number of students in the teacher preparation program in the following categories. Note that you must report on the number of students by ethnicity and race separately. Individuals who are non-Hispanic/Latino will be reported in one of the race categories. Also note that individuals can belong to one or more racial groups, so the sum of the members of each racial category may not necessarily add up to the total number of students enrolled. Teachers Prepared

On this page, enter the number of program completers by the subject area in which they were prepared to teach, and by their academic majors. Note that an individual can be counted in more than one academic major and subject area. For example, if an individual is prepared to teach Elementary Education and Mathematics, that individual should be counted in both subject areas. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major or subject area, you may leave the cell blank. Please use the "Other" category sparingly, if there is no similar subject area or academic major listed. In these cases, you should use the text box to describe the subject area(s) and/or the academic major(s) counted in the "Other" category.

If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the program completers in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, provide only the program completers in traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, provide only the program completers for the alternative programs within the IHE.

After entering the teachers prepared data, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Teachers Prepared by Academic Major

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by academic major for academic year 2017-18. For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Academic major" refers to the actual major(s) declared by the program completer. An individual can be counted in more than one academic major. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major, please leave that cell blank. (§205\(b\)\(1\)\(H\))

Please note that the list of majors includes several "Teacher Education" majors, as well as several noneducation majors. Please use care in entering your majors to ensure education-specific majors and non-education majors are counted correctly. For example, if an individual majored in Chemistry, that individual should be counted in the "Chemistry" academic major category rather than the "Teacher Education–Chemistry" category.

Program Completers

On this page, enter the total number of individuals who completed the program in AY 2017-18 and the two prior academic years. If you submitted an IPRC last year, the number of program completers for the two prior academic years are pre-loaded from your prior year's report.

A program completer is a person who has met all the requirements of a state-approved teacher preparation program. Program completers include all those who are documented as having met such requirements. Documentation may take the form of a degree, institutional certificate, program credential, transcript or other written proof of having met the program's requirements. In applying this definition, the fact that an individual has or has not been recommended to the state for initial certification or licensure may not be used as a criterion for determining who is a program completer.

An individual cannot be classified as both enrolled and as a program completer at the same time. An enrolled individual is not a program completer. Once an individual has met all the requirements of a state-approved teacher preparation program and becomes a program completer, the individual is no longer classified as enrolled.

After entering the program completers, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Annual Goals - Special Education

Each institution of higher education (IHE) that conducts a traditional teacher preparation program (including programs that offer any ongoing professional development programs) or alternative route to state credential program, and that enrolls students receiving Federal assistance under this Act, shall set annual quantifiable goals for increasing the number of prospective teachers trained in teacher shortage areas designated by the Secretary or by the state educational agency, including mathematics, science, special education, and instruction of limited English proficient students. (§205(a)(1)(A)(ii), §206(a))

Information about teacher shortage areas can be found at <https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ope/pol/tsa.html>.

Please provide the information below about your program's goals to increase the number of prospective teachers in special education in each of three academic years.

12. Provide any additional comments, exceptions and explanations below:

We are restructuring two of our special education endorsements. Starting in the 2019-20 school year, we are no longer offering an early childhood special education endorsement at the undergraduate level. Instead, students will be able to complete that endorsement through our graduate program. In addition, we are moving our significant disability endorsements (Strategist II) to the graduate level in the 2020-21 school year. Because of these changes, we anticipate a reduced number of students completing special education endorsements at the undergraduate level.

Annual Goals - Instruction of Limited English Proficient Students

Each institution of higher education (IHE) that conducts a traditional teacher preparation program (including programs that offer any ongoing professional development programs) or alternative route to state credential program, and that enrolls students receiving Federal assistance under this Act, shall set annual quantifiable goals for increasing the number of prospective teachers trained in teacher shortage areas designated by the Secretary or by the state educational agency, including mathematics, science, special education, and instruction of limited English proficient students. (§205\(a\)\(1\)\(A\)\(ii\), §206\(a\))

12. Provide any additional comments, exceptions and explanations below:

We are offering the ESL endorsement at the graduate level next year. Because of this, those classes will be offered during the summer. Our undergraduate students can take up to 12 graduate credits before graduation. We hope this will make it more manageable for some students to add this endorsement. In addition, we have added an ESL minor. Even if students are not able to complete the entire endorsement as an undergraduate, they can get started on it while with us.

The above areas are strands across all levels of our Education major. All students are required to complete a field experience in at least one low SES school, while many complete more than that. We also try to have every student complete a rural experience as well. All students complete Educating the Exceptional Person. In this course, students learn about disabilities and the IEP process. In addition, all students complete a field experience in a special education classroom. A course in ESL is required in the reading endorsement, our largest endorsement area at the elementary level. The topic of ESL is in many major courses and all methods courses at both the elementary and secondary level.

Use of Technology

1. Provide the following information about the use of technology in your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request. (§205\(a\)\(1\)\(F\))

Does your program prepare teachers to:

- a. integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction

Yes
 No

- b. use technology effectively to collect data to improve teaching and learning

Yes

- c. use technology effectively to manage data to improve teaching and learning

Yes
 No

- d. use technology effectively to analyze data to improve teaching and learning

2. Provide a description of the evidence that your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction, and to use technology effectively to collect, manage, and analyze data in order to improve teaching and learning for the purpose of increasing student academic achievement. Include a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

Technology is integrated and modeled across Education courses at the various levels. Students use technology to complete projects and assignments in both university classrooms and field classrooms including the use of interactive white boards. The use of technology is modeled by faculty in selected courses and students are able to apply the use of this technology in field experiences when appropriate. At the elementary level, there is an assignment related to technology integration in all content areas. In Reading and Social Studies, students complete a project using Google Earth related to both the content of book they are reading but to also learn about the geographical information in that region. In both Math and Science, students identify technology applications that are applicable to those content areas and critique them for use in the classroom. At the secondary level, students complete a technology project on how to integrate technology in their content area.. In addition, students are required to complete teacher work sample assignments in which they gather data, analyze that data, and revise lesson plans according to their findings. In other clinical and field requirements students gather data on individual children and analyze that data to provide individualized instruction. During student teaching, students are required to collect data and refine lessons to meet students' needs in order to satisfy a student teaching core requirement. Finally, students are required to use an ePortfolio system to document their learning throughout the program. Students are admitted into or out of the teacher education program based on assessment data. Major assignments in these courses are aligned to the program goals (InTASC & Iowa teaching standards) which provides the Education faculty with data on students' progress in each area. Students that are getting the reading endorsement and/or special education endorsements take ED 380 Characteristics of Mild/Moderate Disabilities. This course has a number of technology applications integration of technology for instructional purposes in addition to a tool for accommodations for students that have disabilities.

After reviewing and updating as necessary, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Teacher Training

Provide the following information about your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request. \(§205\(a\)\(1\)\(G\)\)

1. Does your program prepare general education teachers to:

a. teach students with disabilities effectively

- Yes
 No

b. participate as a member of individualized education program teams

- Yes
 No

c. teach students who are limited English proficient effectively

- Yes

2. Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares general education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

All education students are required to complete the ED263 Exceptional Persons. This course includes a field experience in a special education classroom. During this course, students are required to attend an IEP workshop and complete a reflection that highlights the importance of general education teacher involvement in the IEP process. All students complete lesson plans during methods courses that include differentiation and accommodations for students across the spectrum, including students with disabilities, gifted students, and those who are ELL. This is at both the elementary and secondary level. Those seeking a reading endorsement are required to complete a course specific to teaching students with limited English Proficiency. This course may include a field experience tutoring students who are learning the English language. In addition, students completing the reading endorsement are also required to take ED 380 Characteristics of Mild/Moderate Disabilities. This course is primarily focused on how to develop interventions for students with learning and/or behavior needs in the general education classroom.

3. Does your program prepare special education teachers to:

a. teach students with disabilities effectively

- Yes

Program does not prepare special education teachers

b. participate as a member of individualized education program teams

Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

In addition to all of the requirements for general education teacher candidates, special education teacher candidates are required write an IEP. This IEP is based on a student from their field experience. Candidates are also required to participate in mock IEP meetings on campus, and hopefully attend an IEP meeting while in their field experiences or during student teaching. Special education methods courses instruct students in strategies that would benefit all students, including those who have limited English proficiency.
