

Community Action Poverty Simulation Registration
Mount Mercy University

The Poor Women, Poor Work, Poor Families portal course at Mount Mercy University invites you to participate in our upcoming Poverty Simulation designed to extend awareness of the challenges experienced by low-income families. Participants role-play the lives of TANF recipients, elderly persons, disabled persons and families living in poverty who are trying to acquire and provide the necessities of life while encountering human service agencies, grocers, pawnbrokers, bill collectors, job interviewers, police officers and others. Join us in this virtual experience of poverty to gain an understanding of this challenge to our community. For questions or for more information, please contact Joni Howland at jhowland@mtmercy.edu.

Date: Friday, November 9th, 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Location: Betty Cherry Heritage Hall, Mount Mercy University (see included map)
