

How do I find literature in the Wiley Online Library?

Step One: Select the Wiley Online Library.

Step Two: From the subject areas on the homepage, select “Social & Behavioral Sciences” and “Education” as the applicable subtopic.

Step Three: The database portal now appears. Select a subtopic of interest from the right menu. A list of associated journals will then appear.

The main content area is titled "Education" and displays several journal and book covers, including "Development and Alumni Relations Report", "Assessment Methods in Statistical Education: An International Perspective", "Higher Education Abstracts", and "Dyslexia Matters: A Celebratory Contributed Volume to Honour Professor T.R. Miles". A search box is located on the right side, with a dropdown menu set to "All content". A "TOPICS" list is also visible on the right, with a red circle highlighting the "TOPICS" section. The "TOPICS" list includes: All Education, Adult & Continuing Education, Art & Design Education, Assessment (K-12), Assessment, Evaluation & Research (Higher Education), Community Colleges, Conflict Resolution & Mediation (Scholarship), Curriculum Tools - General, Diversity & Inclusion (K-12), Education & Public Policy, Education Special Topics, Evaluation & Research Methods, Faculty Development, General & Introductory Education, Higher Education General Information & Library Science, K-12 General, Language Teaching, Leadership & Administration (K-12), Leadership, Administration & Policy (Higher Education), and Learning Disabilities.

Step Four: Select a title from the journals roster. The publication’s homepage now appears. Access is available for issues dating from the mid-1990s. The journal’s search box (seen on the page’s right side) produces results only for THIS journal.

A search box is located on the right side, with a dropdown menu set to "In this journal". A red circle highlights the search box. The "SEARCH" section includes a "Rediscover" banner for the Journal of Adolescent & Adult Literacy.

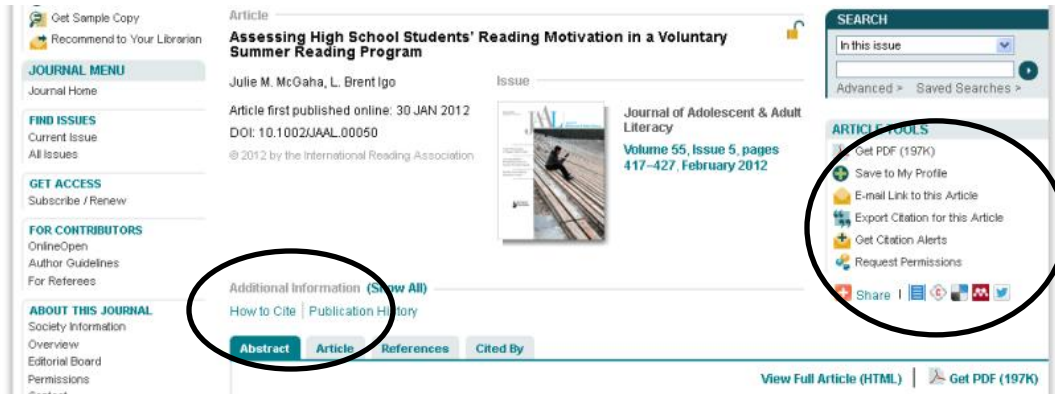

Step Five: The list of search results includes publishing details and other options. An open padlock indicates the article is available in full-text format. A padlock with the word “free” implies open content. Articles lacking a padlock symbol are not available in full-text.
