We are a domestic violence and sexual assault agency serving primarily the African American community. We offer counseling, outreach services, prevention services, personal & legal advocacy, and referral services to other agencies.

Volunteer Opportunities

Amani Community Services is a domestic violence and sexual assault agency that primarily serves the African American communities in Black Hawk and Linn County. They are in need of volunteers that would like to help end domestic violence. Help is needed doing intakes with new clients, assisting with the crisis line, conducting small groups, and clerical work.
