Children of Promise, Youth Mentoring Programs serve youth facing challenges through One-on-One Mentoring, Foster Grandparent Program, and Youth Leadership. The children in our One-on-One Mentoring Program have a parent or guardian in prison, on parole, or on probation.

Volunteer Opportunities

Children of Promise is a nonprofit organization that works with youth ages 6-17 who have parent (s) who are currently involved with the judicial system or are incarcerated. They are seeking mentors who are 18+ years of age to mentor youth enrolled in their program. Mentors are asked to volunteer for four hours a month, or an hour a week, over the course of one year with their mentee or little. These interactions are always based on having fun and being a great role model for these young people
